Val-Kill

Visitors may tour Mrs. Roosevelt's Val-Kill Cottage and enjoy the beautiful surrounding grounds.

The Vanderbilt Mansion National Historic Site

This site was established as a monument to an era rather than a tribute to any one person or family. The park offers a window into the philosophy of the American country house, the lives of its domestic staff and its relationship to the surrounding community.

NYC IMMIGRATION & NEIGHBORHOODS

TENEMENT MUSEUM

Under one Roof (Grades: 1-12)

In the early 20th Century, conditions in tenements and factories motivated debates that lead to questions about life in cities: what is the government's role in housing, or workplaces? How do a city and nation respond to an unprecedented number of new arrivals? In this tour, you'll trace this period of high immigration and the changes brought by these conversations through the stories of the Rogarshevskys and the Baldizzis, a Jewish and an Italian family who eventually became neighbors in 97 Orchard Street. Through stories of shared meals, neighborly help, and advice on immigration status, we'll explore how families respond to the conditions of being an immigrant and the changing role of government in their lives. (90 mins) Capacity: 45

100 Years Apart (Grades: 1-12)

How does work affect your life?
Students visit the recreated apartment exhibits of the Gumpertz family in the 1870s and the Wong family in the 1970s to explore community, work, and immigration in two different centuries. Mrs. Gumpertz and Mrs. Wong both worked in the garment industry and raised families in tenements, and their stories help students explore patterns and differences across time. (90 mins) Capacity: 45

GUIDED NEIGHBORHOODS TOUR
